SAY

Lesson message:

Hello Everyone! Today we are going to continue exploring self-awareness. Let's remember that self-awareness helps us understand our feelings, thoughts, and values. Our feelings, thoughts, and values impact our behavior in different situations. The ways we think and feel impact our decisions. How have you shown self-awareness? If not, what can you do better next time? Let's try to find more examples in the way we learn and work with one another today. We can all do it! We are going to have a great day!

Daily message

DO

Before beginning, write the Daily Message on chart paper or the board. Invite students to join the circle and sing the welcome song while gathering.

SAY

Welcome, welcome, welcome to you. We are beginning. We are so happy to see you!

Lesson 4

Read aloud the daily message text to students. As you read aloud, think aloud pointing to words and describing meaning. Show students any collective nouns (class). Clarify the meaning of unknown words and phrases.

Academic vocabulary

I am going to read our Daily Message again. When I am reading the Daily Message aloud, I want you to think of any words you hear that you do not know.

Read the Daily Message straight through, this time demonstrating automaticity, appropriate intonation, and expression.

Think about the words that you noticed that you did not already know. This is how I like to learn new words and I hope this is exciting for you too!

Ask students to share the words they noticed with a partner and what they might mean. Listen in to their discussions to see if they chose the same word you planned to highlight today.

Lesson 4

SAY

Let's explore the unknown words together. Remember, another way to describe these words we do not know is to call them vocabulary words. What vocabulary words do you notice?

DO

Allow students to share the vocabulary words that are new to them.

SAY

These are all awesome words to explore! Today, we are going to zoom in on the word impact. The word impact refers to an effect on something. Your feelings and thoughts may effect your choices in different situations.

Lesson 4

Share time

SAY

We are going to continue to discuss how we show self-awareness in our own lives. Think of an example when you had self-awareness. Can anyone relate their self-awareness back to our vocabulary word, impact? How can your self-awareness impact your choices and decisions? What about when you are still learning about something and you are almost there? For example, when I was on the swim team, I had to keep practicing. My feelings of determination and desire to get better impacted my decision to keep practicing. I did not give up!

DO

Give students time to share with a partner. Listen as students share to assess student understanding of SEL: Self-Awareness focus and ability to follow discussion rules and speak in complete sentences. At the end of the time period, thank the students for sharing and remind them to practice their self-awareness.

SAY

Thank you for sharing your wonderful thoughts today. We did it! Remember to practice your self-awareness!
